

99th Indian Science Congress – 2012

Ref. No. KIIT/ISC-12/218/11

Date: 08/09/2011

NOTICE

SUBMISSION OF APPLICATION FOR 'INFOSYS FOUNDATION – ISCA TRAVEL AWARD'

The 99th Indian Science Congress (Theme “Science and Technology for Inclusive Innovation- Role of Women”) is jointly hosted by KIIT University and the Union Government run NISER, Bhubaneswar, Orissa from 3rd to 7th January, 2012, at Bhubaneswar. The 99th Indian Science Congress is expected to be attended by 15,000 Scientists, Ministers from the Centre and the State, Secretaries of various Ministries, Corporate Leaders, Nobel Laureates and delegates from various Scientific Bodies and Industries.

Dr. Manmohan Singh, Hon'ble Prime Minister of India will inaugurate the 99th Indian Science Congress which is the most important and biggest congregation of scientific brains in India.

Applications are invited from the students (up to XII) for ‘Infosys Foundation-ISCA Travel Award’ which will be given to five students during the Annual Session of Indian Science Congress Association.

Interested candidates are requested to submit an application with a write up on – “What development in Science during the last two years have influenced him/her and why?” and brief bio-data (name, address, school, date of birth, class, phone/e-mail, extracurricular activities, etc.) forwarded by the School Principal/Headmaster. The applications may be submitted latest by November 15, 2011 to either of the below mentioned address.

Dr. Sasmita Rani Samanta

Registrar, KIIT University &

Local Secretary (99th ISC)

KIIT, Bhubaneswar, Pin-751024

E-mail: registrar@kiit.ac.in

Dr. A. K. Naik

Registrar, NISER &

Local Secretary (99th ISC)

Institute of Physics Campus,

Sachivalaya Marg

Bhubaneswar, Pin- 751005

E-mail: abhaya@niser.ac.in